

Study/Discussion Questions for "Come Alive"

In your ideal life what do you see yourself attaining, possessing or developing into in five years? Ten years? Fifteen years? What will it take to make this vision a reality? What will be the costs and consequences? Where will your life be richer, and where will your life be poorer?

What do you want in life?

Describe a time in your life when you received God's grace. What happened?

The way others treat us can affect the way we think about God. Reflect back upon a situation where you longed deeply for the approval of one or a group but did not receive it. The hurt runs deep and no one can condemn us greater than we condemn ourselves. But even when our hearts condemn us "God is greater than our hearts and He knows everything." 1 John 3:20. Where have you allowed your own sense of wounded worth to condemn you in your own heart? What does God say to that condemnation? Who are you going to believe?

Where do you need more energy? What do you need to do about it?
