

Study/Discussion Questions for "Worship as a Way of Life"

Where does God have the toughest time in getting you to let go? Control is a tough issue, especially in areas of expertise or fear. In what specific area of your life do you find it most difficult to give up a meaningful measure of control in order to go with God's plans instead of your plans?

Where have you been heart-shattered in your life? What was the good that came out of it? How has it affected the person you have become?

What does "integrity" mean to You?

Describe a desperate time in your life or a longing standing prayer request where you've had to leave the timing and the results with God? What did you learn?

How do you keep yourself Fueled and Aflame? What puts the flame out? What is it that drains away your passion and zeal?