

Study/Discussion Questions for "Your Life Changing Story"

We resonate with stories. They paint pictures in the mind and the heart. They draw us in and help us to see things more deeply. This is their power. Describe how a particular story drew you into its power. What did it do to you?

How did you come to Jesus? What were the essential elements?

Identify three specific ways in which you presently see Jesus influencing and impacting your life and your character.

What are your two greatest fears in sharing your story? What will you need to do to face and defeat these fears?